

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since I signed up for this protection in Indiana, the number of unsolicited calls has dropped to almost zero. This has resulted in substantial time saving for my family.